

SEMINAR ON ENVIRONMENTAL POLICY

Thursday and Friday, September 12-13, 2019, Burlington and Atlantic Counties

SPONSORED BY

AGENDA

Thursday, September 12, 2019

- 9:00 AM Convene
Pinelands Preservation Alliance, 17 Pemberton Rd., Southampton, NJ
www.pinelandsalliance.org, 609-859-8860
- 9:30 AM Climate Change and Rising Sea Level: Threats and Mitigation Strategies

Nick Angarone, Bureau of Climate Resilience
NJ Department of Environmental Protection

Reflections on Thirty Years of Regional Land Use Planning in the Pinelands

Carleton Montgomery
Executive Director, Pinelands Preservation Alliance
- 11:30 AM Lunch
- 12:15 PM Drive to Atsion Lake Recreation Area
715 Route 206, Shamong, NJ
- 1:15 PM Canoe and Environmental Experience
Rob Ferber
Director, Pinelands Adventures

Dale Rosselet
Vice President for Education, NJ Audubon Society

John Volpa
Director of Education, Pinelands Adventures

Gretchen Whitman
Sanctuary Director, Nature Center of Cape May, NJ Audubon Society

5:00 PM Drive to Hotel, Check-in, Prepare for Networking Reception
Borgata Hotel, 1 Renaissance Way, Atlantic City

6:30 PM Networking Reception
The Water Club

Friday, September 13

Checkout of hotel before breakfast

8:15 AM Convene for Breakfast
Aqua Room, The Water Club, Atlantic City

Sharing on Leadership in Action projects

8:45 AM Leadership in Action Project Q Storming Session

10:15 AM Drive to Environmental Site Visit
ACUA Solid Waste Facility and Wind Farm 609-272-6950
1801 Absecon Boulevard (Route 30/White Horse Pike)
Atlantic City, NJ 08401

11:00 AM Joseph Pantalone, LNJ'15, Vice President, Atlantic County Utilities Authority
Board Chair, Sustainable New Jersey

Tour of ACUA Wind Farm

1:00 PM Drive to ACUA Environmental Park (Solid Waste Facility)
6700 Delilah Road, Egg Harbor Township, NJ 08234

1:15 PM Lunch

1:30 PM Tour of ACUA Environmental Park

2:30 PM Seminar Debrief
Mark Murphy, LNJ '91
President, Lead New Jersey

3:30 PM Seminar Adjourns