

LEAD NEW JERSEY
174 Nassau Street, Ste. 2500
Princeton, New Jersey 08542

Seminar on Human Services and Health Care Policy

Friday, October 2, 2020, Duke Farms, Hillsborough, NJ

Sponsored by:

AGENDA

Friday, October 2, 2020

9:00 AM Convene for Breakfast
Duke Farms
1112 Dukes Parkway, Hillsborough, NJ

Welcome and Introduction
Mark M. Murphy, LNJ '91
President, Lead New Jersey

Margaret Waldock, LNJ'14, Executive Director, Duke Farms

9:30 AM A View From the Front: COVID-19 Health Care Responders

Kenneth Esser, LNJ'18 and LNJ Trustee
Chief of Staff, Hackensack Meridian Health

James McCracken, LNJ'09, President, LeadingAge NJ & DE
Former New Jersey Long Term Care Ombudsman

10:45 AM Growing Up Poor in the Garden State: Infant Impacts and ALICE Reports

Hannah Korn-Heilner, LNJ'20, Advocates for Children of New Jersey

Molly Debevoise Rennie, LNJ'19, United Way of Northern New Jersey

12:15 PM Lunch

1:00 PM Health and Mental Health Care: An LNJ Discussion

Tara Chalakani, LNJ '18, Preferred Behavioral Health Group

Aisha Thomas-Petit, LNJ'20 and LNJ Board Member
Chief Diversity Officer, ADP

2:00 PM BIG Changes Take Partners of All Sizes

Maisha Simmons, New Jersey Team Director, Robert Wood Johnson Foundation

Diane Hagerman, LNJ '15, Deputy Director for Programs, New Jersey Health Initiatives

Leaders from communities around New Jersey have developed plans and garnered partners for systematically addressing those environmental and social factors which most impact poor health outcomes. The Robert Wood Johnson Foundation and New Jersey Health Initiatives have launched Communities Moving to Action Upstream Action Acceleration Next Generation Community Leaders and a national collaboration BUILD Health Challenge to address these challenges.

3:30 PM Tour of Duke Farms

Jon Wagar, LNJ'11
Executive Director of Operations, Duke Farms

Mark M. Murphy, LNJ '91
President, Lead New Jersey