RE: Seminar on Human Services and Health Care Policy
Thursday November 7 – Friday November 8, 2019

We have two full days planned on Thursday November 7 and Friday November 8, 2019. We convene on Thursday at 8:30 AM at the Center for State Health Policy, Rutgers University. Parking is very limited in the immediate area, so we recommend parking at the Hyatt New Brunswick, where we will be having dinner that evening, and walking to the Center for State Health Policy.

We'll hear about various issues in the health and human services field and, later in the afternoon, we will engage in an activity that involves shopping for groceries on a SNAP (formerly known as food stamps) budget; please review guidelines in the Living on SNAP Benefits readings.

We will convene at the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation, Princeton, at 8:15 am Friday November 8 for our final day of the seminar. There is ample parking available at the Foundation in the lot on the far side of the building. Please use the Foundation's main entrance to sign in and pick up a visitor's badge.

Dress is business casual for the entire seminar. There is walking for the SNAP activity on Thursday afternoon, so please be sure to wear comfortable shoes and, if rain is predicted, bring an umbrella.

PLEASE BRING $5 FOR YOUR SHARE OF THE SNAP ACTIVITY.
